A Campaign of Fraud.

The New York World says: The Republican campaign is a campaign of fraud and pretenses. The white plume of the "Knight of Maino" is a fraud. Blaine's character is black—his record is black. There is nothing chivalrous about him. His humilitaing appeals to Mulligan, his famous sunstroke trick and his resignation from the House to escape expulsion were craven acts with nothing knightly about them. The episodo of Ben. Butler is a fraud and false petense. Under the mask of an anti-monopoly candidate Butler is running as the tool of Mr. Blaine on a bargain made with Bill Chandler. Butler is a money-grabber and the paid advocated monopolies, yet he poses as a representative of labor and anti-monopoly for the sole purpose of striving to cheat advocated monopolies, but he sole purpose of striving to cheat a sufficient number of Democrate out of their votes to give Blaine aplurality in this State. Blaine's appeal to the Irish American voters is a fraud. For two or three years during the existence of the "Know-Nothing" party, Blaine was a bitter reviler of people of foreign birth, especially of Irish Catholics, and did his best to prevent their admission to American citizenship. When he was Secretary of the State he made no protest against the imprisonment of Irish Americans as it "suspects" in England, and the great Buffalo meeting presided over by Governor Cleveland was held to denounce his inaction. The foul and lying personal sanada, set adotat through Republican genetics and circulated by the Republican State and Katonal committees, is a fraud and a false pretense. Its authors and its cleural and fills of personal slander, only to soil their own dishonest hands without leaving a stain onthe object of their unnanily assault. The Republican professions of friendship for labor are fraudalent and filatop tersonal slander, only to soil their own dishonest hands without leaving a stain onthe object of their unnanily assault. The Republican professions of friendship for labor are fraudalent and false. have been driven to dig down in the mire and filth of personal slander, only to soil their own dishonest hands without leaving a stain on the object of their unmanly assault. The Kepublican professions of friendahip for labor are fraudulent and false. Corporations and monopolies have been created by corruption and enriched, while labor has become impoverished by Republican rule. The workingmen today know their own privations and affictions. They know that wages are reduced and are only kept up above a starvation standard through the power of the labor unions; that employment is getting more and scarce, and that thousands of willing toilers are doomed to idleness. What an insult to their intelligence is the assertion of Mr. Blaine that the Republican policy for twenty-four years has been a blessed boon to labor! What a mockey of their singlerings how the workingmen, under paternal Republican care, earing enough to iive in comfort, oduce the his family and put up a competency for old age! Yes; the Riquiblican campuign is a campaign of fraud and lafse pretenses. But this is natural. The Blaine Republicans and will be rejected by the thinking homest people. Turn the rascals out!

REPUBLICAN MASS MEETING.

Harmonious Throughout-Instructions for Hen. W. H. Wadsworth.

for Hos. W. H. Wadworth.

The Republicans of this county assembled in mass meeting last Saturday to select delegates to represent the county in the District Convention, which meets in this city next Tuesday, to nominate a candidate for Congress. The court house was comfortably filled, but the assemblage was not entirely Republican. A goodly number of the "unterrified," staunch and true" Democrats were spectators. As there was no contest whatever, the proceedings were harmonious from beginning to end. The "ayea" had it every time.

The meeting was called to order at two o'clock p. m., by Mr. W. C. Shackle-ford, Chairman of the County Committee.

On motion, R. A. Cochran, Sr., was elected permanent Chairman and W. B. Phister, permanent Secretary.
